DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the surface manifestations and grooves and dimples claimed in claims 9, 10, 15 and 16 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3 and 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sapper.

Regarding claim 1, Sapper show a generator comprising a stator structure, stacked laminations and an end flange (6), a plurality of space blocks mounted between the stacked laminations and end flanges and a baffle (8) secured to the end flange with radial slots (Figures 1-4) for receiving copper end turns (11).

Regarding claims 2 and 3, it is noted that Sapper also shows all of the limitations claimed invention.

Regarding claims 11-13, the method for controlling the ventilation flow would be inherent and obvious since the prior art references meet the structural limitations of the claimed device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sapper in view of Armor et al.

Regarding claims 6 and 7, Sapper shows all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the baffle being formed of non-magnetic material (stainless steel).

For the purpose of preventing induced heating, Armor et al. show the baffle being formed of non-magnetic material (stainless steel).

Since Sapper and Armor et al. are all from the same field of endeavor; the purpose disclosed by one inventor would have been recognized in the pertinent art of the others.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to form the baffle of non-magnetic material (stainless steel) as taught by Armor et al. for the purpose discussed above.

Regarding claim 8, Sapper discloses the claimed invention except for the thickness of the baffle to be about 2mm. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the baffle to be 2 mm, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 4, 5, 9, 10 and 14-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
